

New Jet Completes Production Model Test Flight Successfully

The newest member of the U.S. Air Force jet fleet — North American Aviation's first production T-39 Sabreliner — has successfully completed its first flight here on the California desert.

The speedy, twin-engine jet was put through a series of stability and performance checks in an hour and a half flight by veteran North American Test Pilots J. O. Roberts and Gage Mace.

"WE WERE very impressed by the airplane's handling characteristics and particularly with the takeoff and climb performance," Roberts declared.

Designed primarily as a combat readiness trainer to maintain jet pilot flying proficiency, the T-39 has been ordered into quantity production by the Air Force and is expected to serve for many years as a multi-purpose jet "work horse." Forty-two of the sleek trainers are on order from North American's Los Angeles division.

Between the F-86 and F-100 in size, the swept-wing Sabreliner is designed basically for a crew of two and four passengers. It flies as fast as most modern jet airliners, cruising at about 500 miles and hour above 40,000 feet. Its 1500 mile range on internal fuel permits a one-stop flight from coast to coast.

THE T-39 WAS designed to Federal Aviation Agency certification requirements for commercial transport aircraft and will be FAA certified under North American's contract with the Air Force. Later the company may offer it to the commercial market. North American now is conducting studies in this field. The first production T-39 is scheduled for delivery to the Air Force in September.

Mooseheart To Celebrate Anniversary

The 37th anniversary of the founding of Mooseheart will be celebrated during a dinner-dance to be presented by the Torrance Moose lodge at the lodge hall, 1744 W. Carson St., next Saturday, July 16. Dan Hutchinson, governor, announced this week.

Dinner will be served "family style" starting at 6 p.m., and dancing to the music of Joe Radulovich and his orchestra will begin at 9 p.m.

Charles Ross Britt, Jr., chairman of the lodge's civic affairs committee, also released a statement this week indicating that 26 entries have been received in the Moose-sponsored "Baby Sweepstakes." The winning contestant, the mother of the first baby delivered in the Torrance Memorial, Riviera, or Little Company of Mary hospitals on July 17, will receive a complete layette from the Moose lodge, a stroller from the Women of the Moose, and other gifts from Lawson's Jewelers.

A special family dinner program has been scheduled by the Torrance Moose for Sunday, July 24th, at 4 p.m. Arrangements for the dinner are under the personal direction of Hutchinson.

WW I Vets Slate Long Beach Conclave

The seventh annual convention of the Veterans of 1917-18 is slated to get underway in Long Beach July 14. The four day conclave will open with Memorial services in the Veterans Memorial Bldg. at 8 p.m. Thursday.

A parade is scheduled for Friday evening and elections will take place on Saturday, to be followed by the Commander's Ball in the Lafayette Hotel.

World War I veterans wishing to know more about the convention may contact the Veterans of World War I, 201 S. Mission Dr., San Gabriel.

Torrance Pastor Speaks Sunday On CBS Network

Monsignor Thomas J. McCarthy, pastor of Nativity Catholic Church here, will speak on the subject "The Ministry of Fear" coast-to-coast this Sunday, July 17, via the Columbia Broadcasting System. Locally the broadcast will be heard over KNX (1070) from 7:30 to 8 a.m.

A former Editor of the Tidings, official Catholic weekly newspaper for the Los Angeles Archdiocese, Msgr. McCarthy in recent years has served as first Director of the National Catholic Welfare Conference Bureau of Information (1949-1953) in Washington, D.C.; then as Vice-Chancellor and Chancellor of the Military Ordinariate, the "diocese" for all Catholic personnel in the U.S. Military services.

He returned to Southern California in 1957 and recently was appointed to the pastorate at Nativity Catholic Church here.

A native of Worcester, Mass., Msgr. McCarthy is a graduate of Holy Cross College there and St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore, Md. He was ordained a priest for the Los Angeles Archdiocese on May 22, 1937.

Five years later Msgr. McCarthy received his Ph.D. Degree in Psychology at Catholic University of America, and shortly afterwards was named Editor of the Tidings. Twice honored by the late Pope Pius XII, he was named a Papal Chamberlain in 1950 and a Domestic Prelate in 1953.
